

IFIS-Online-Colloquium

The Institute for Integral Studies invites you to the IFIS Online Colloquium n° 31:

Time:	Wednesday, March 11th, 2020 , at 20.00-22.00 h , Zoom meeting.
Presenter:	Adrian Wagner, Phd. Student
Topic:	Global Social Witnessing as a metamodern practice for game changers?!

Details

Through the (felt) acceleration of events like climate change, rise of ethnocentrism, the corona virus or trade wars, we experience an increase in (political) polarisation. The political game between traditional right and left, or progressives and conservatism is more and more leading into the grid lock of game acceptance or game denial. But how do we step out of this vicious circle of binary opposites and polarization? Is there a possibility to start to change the game in accordance with the global playing field? Based on emerging research around collective trauma integration, generative social field research, as well as neurobiology, we will examine the concept of global social witnessing as a metamodern practice for (global) game changers.

Short bio of the presenter

Adrian Wagner (1985) is currently working on his dissertation “Global Social Witnessing and Collective Trauma Integration – A case study of the Pocket Project”. He is engaged in organizing the Global Social Witnessing Conference.Lab 2020 at the University of Witten/Herdecke. In addition, he has founded Teal Wave Consulting as a leadership and transformation facilitator and is part of the emerging Black Forrest School of Metamodernism. He loves dancing tango, meditation and Martial Arts.

The main intent of our Colloquium – in line with IFIS' general mission and purpose – is to help connect interested integrally oriented researchers and practitioners by offering them a forum to exchange experiences around innovative approaches to complex social challenges. The colloquium is designed to strengthen the dialog and connection between IFIS' members and friends, mostly spread out in different countries and even continents. We also hope to attract new colleagues to join us and be part of IFIS' community of integral research and inquiry.
